Thursday 19th (Part 1) and Friday 20th (Part 2) February 2015 – reporting on Animal Rights

This report examines our attitudes to animal rights and welfare. Catalonia bans bullfighting, and on the same day in the UK animal rights activists protest against animal testing. One is a top story, another is barely reported. As a nation of pet lovers, we respond with strong emotion to tales of abused animals. At the same time, most people have little interest in what happens in slaughterhouses, factory farms and labs. How do we really feel about different forms of animal rights and welfare?

Part 1 will take place between 10am and 4pm in Maidstone (you can drop your child/ren off from 9.30am) where the children will work with Lesley Finlay (News for Schools) and other young people to form Studio Journalism Teams to prepare for their experience in front of or behind the camera!
