What were your favourite subjects when you were at school?

My favourite subjects when I was at school were Maths, PE, and Music. I love anything creative. I particularly enjoyed when we got to do drama as I loved taken on the roles of different characters and imagining how they would feel and what they would do in different situations.

What is your favourite subject to teach?

My favourite subject to teach is PE. This is because I love being active and the variety of sports we get to learn and play is great. I especially love teaching hockey as this is one of my favourite sports and I used to be part of a hockey team.

What is your favourite book and why?

'Wonder' – as it teaches us to have compassion, acceptance, and empathy for others. It is a beautiful story of kindness and how it is not always easy to step outside of our comfort zones, but it is always worth it.

What do you like best about teaching at Staplehurst?

The children – I love their enthusiastic and positive attitude to learning. I enjoy teaching children new things and also learning new things together.

What did you want to be when you were younger?

Since I can remember I have always wanted to be a teacher. When I was 7, I used to have my own pretend class and I used my teddies as the children. It's much better now having students who actually answer my questions.

What hobbies do you enjoy?

I enjoy taking long walks and exploring new places. I also love cooking and baking, especially lemon drizzle cake and brownies, as these are my favourite.

What three words would describe you?

Fair, creative and caring.

If you were on a desert island what two things would you take with you?

I would take a blanket - to keep me warm at night, it would be something soft to sit on and could be used as slight protection from the rain. I would also take a kayak so I could travel around the island and see if there is anything I could use during my stay and would give me the option to kayak back to the mainland if necessary.
